Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. * * * It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

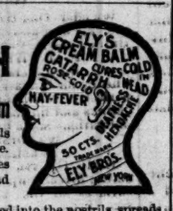

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hobart Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land.

Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

Tornadoes Strike New Orleans

Three separate tornadoes struck New Orleans and vicinity yesterday, causing loss of life and great property damage in sections which a week ago were more or less devastated by the Gulf hurricane.

Seven persons were killed, according to reports which reached New Orleans late yesterday from the country about this city. Death are reported by St. James and West Baton Rouge parishes.

The first tornado was at Pontchatoula, La., about 50 miles north of New Orleans; the second in New Orleans, and the third near Biloxi, Miss., about half-way between New Orleans and Mobile, on the Gulf coast.

The tornado, at Pontchatoula struck the southern end of the town about 7 o'clock in the morning.

The second tornado appeared in New Orleans soon after 8 o'clock, ripping a narrow path through three miles of the city's residence and business section and doing $500,000 damage.

No lives were lost in New Orleans but one negro was probably fatally injured by a freight car which overturned upon him, and half a hundred other persons were injured, 11 of whom were taken to hospital.

The third tornado passed seven miles northwest of Biloxi, Miss., where it overturned an engine and three cars belonging to the Dentzler Lumber Company, slightly injuring the engineer and fireman. Immense trees which withstood last Thursday's hurricane were uprooted in that section.

Voracity of Black Bass.

The black bass is like "a roaring lion going about seeking whom he may devour." I have seen a good-sized specimen get into a school of minnows and eat and stuff until he could not get any more into his capacious insides,, then go off by himself, throw up what he had eaten and begin over again, after which he would keep on killing the poor, innocent minnows apparently for the mere pleasure of killing. Very young bass will attack minute water life which flourishes on water plants and get away with every one in sight, adopting the same method as their elders. To illustrate the extent of the cannibalism of the black bass, here is an experience of a superintendent of one of the fish hatcheries in Pennsylvania: The superintendent made an actual count of 20,000 young bass about an inch long and placed them in a fry pond by themselves. He gave them food six times a day, and, according to his statement, each fish ate on an average three times its own weight of prepared food every 24 hours. They were placed in a pond on July 1, and on October 1, when they were taken out, there were only 11,000, and the record showed that less than 200 died from sickness. It is reasonable to suppose, therefore, that, in addition to the food given them by the superintendent, there were about 9,000 bass devoured by their stronger and more fortunate companions. —[Field and Stream.

Hurled from Fourth Story Window.

Clutched in each other's arms, two young men fell from the fourth story of the Lake Shore Railroad office building in Cleveland, Ohio, and were hurled to their death on the pavement below at 5 o'clock yesterday evening. The dead men are J. V. Bunts, aged 30, and Harry Wilfred, aged 17 years, both of whom were clerks in the office of the superintendent of motive power of the Lake Shore Railroad. Bunts was killed instantly and Wilfred died in an ambulance while being conveyed to a hospital. The young men had had some trouble previously and a renewal of this late yesterday afternoon led to an altercation between them. It was as a result of this that they fell from the window which was open directly in front of them. The scene of the tragedy was in the center of the down town business district and dozens of horrified persons witnessed it. During their flight through the air from the fourth story to the pavement, in which their bodies hurled over and over again, neither of the men relaxed the deathlike grasp they had maintained from the beginning of the scuffle which led to their fall and each held on to the other with a deathlike grasp till their bodies struck the pavement and lay motionless where they fell.

Is the Moon Inabited.

Science has proven that the moon has an atmosphere, which makes life in some form possible on that satelite; but not for human beings, who have a hard enough time on this earth of ours; especially those who don't know that Electric Bitters cure Headache, Biliousness, Malaria, Chills and Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Torpid Liver, Kidney complaints, General Debility and Female weakness. Unequalled as a general Tonic and Appetizer for weak persons and especially for the aged. It induces sound sleep. Fully guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists. Price only 50.

All the good qualities of Ely's Cream Balm, solid, are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers. That it is an unfailing cure for Nasal Catarrh is proved by an ever-increasing mass of testimony. It does not dry out nor rasp the tender air-passages. It allays the inflamation and goes straight to the root of the disease. Obstinate old cases have been cured in a few weeks. Must Be Spanked in Open Court.

A spanking administered by his father in public court is the ignominious sentence, or rather alternative of a legal sentence, pronounced on Guy Higgins, a 15 year old boy, yesterday, by Justice of the Peace D. F. Blewett. The boy attended the baseball game between the Mishicoots, of Milwaukee, and the Fond du Lac team Sunday afternoon, and the playing of the Milwaukee team, or something else, aroused the enmity of the young lad, and he, with other boys, threw grass and sticks at the Milwaukee players. After the game was over and the visiting team had boarded a street car, Guy threw a stone through the open window of the car at one of the men. Mayor T. L. Doyle and his little daughter happened to be on the car and the missile just missed them, and struck one of the players on the arm, cutting it badly.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 6, 1906.

VACCINATION is to be made a political issue in Pennsylvania. Continuing their attacks on State and national regulations concerning vaccination, the delegates in conference at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Anti-Vaccination League at the Continental Hotel in Philadelphia yesterday drew up plans for an active campaign this fall against candidates of all parties who refuse to pledge themselves to the repeal of the present compulsory vaccination law. A regular form will be sent out to all candidates requesting them to define their position on the question of vaccination, and the league will support only such candidates as are willing to go on record as opposed to the present law. Next year it is proposed to hold a national convention of anti-vaccinationists in Philadelphia, and an effort will be made to institute an anti-vaccination political campaign in every state of the country. The highest pitch of enthusiasm of the convention was reached when a letter from Dr. M. R. Leverson, called by Secretary Cope, "one of the greatest authorities on small-pox and vaccination in the world," was read. In part, it said:

I greatly rejoice that you are taking a political stand against that blood-poisoning fantasy—vaccination. There is no support in science, medicine or common sense for this shameful outrage upon the human race. Vaccination was begotten in greed and vanity, delivered in murder and maintained by shameless ignorance. Jenner and Pasteur are the greatest enemies the human race has had for the last two hundred years.

A WASHINGTON paper, which has persistently held from the beginning that "mummy fake" at the Carlyle House the was genuine, has at last admitted the "find" to be a fraud and gives a Bureau of Ethnology expert as its authority The history of the joke is known to all Alexandrians who have interested themselves in the matter. It is said that the first "head" exhibited was made of plaster-of-paris and for a long time had a place among other articles in the window of a second-hand furniture store in the Braddock House building. This was demolished during an "inquest" over the supposed remains. Another head, composed of the same material, was about to be substituted, but it was found to be too small. The perpetrator of the joke, so the story goes, procured an ordinary pasteboard false face and filled it with cement. When it dried something resembling a human face tumbled out. This is what the Washington newspapers, scientists, anthropologists and others have been looking at for several weeks past. But the Washington papers go on the theory that anything is good enough to fool Alexandrians.

THERE will be a demand for horses as well as men while the United States undertakes the task of patroling Cuba in order to keep the peace during the process of reconstruction. Cuba is about as large as Virginia and not well provided with goods roads. The soldiers will mainly serve as mounted police in order to insure efficiency. The drain upon the horse suppy in this country during the Boer war, which was largely fought on horseback, has operated to sustain the price of both horses and mules ever since. Horses are sure to be dear. The Cuban adventure, which may be year in the settling, will cost this country a pretty penny before it is done with it.

"REFORMED" foot ball is more dangerous to life and limb than the scrimmaging game for which it is a substitute. The testimony of expert coaches to this effect in the inquest into the death of the young captain of the Lawrenceville team heretofore referred to in these columns is evidently correct. The longer runs encouraged by the new rules in favor of open play increase the momentum of the runner to such an extent that when tackled the consequences are likely to be disastrous. Low tackling will have to be ruled out (and by low tackling any hold below the waist line should be understood) if foot ball is to escape further condemnation as a homicidal sport.

IT IT PRETTY small business for the great Chicago packers to give light weight. The president of the ice trust was indignant at the suggestion that its drivers sold short-weight pieces, though the suggestion really went no further than the drivers and did not involve the company at all. But the great packers are just as respectable as ice men, and they have been selling for five pounds of lard a pail which weighed five pounds when filled, the customer paying the price of lard for the tin pail. This is about as small business as great manufacturers were ever caught at.

JUDGE WITT, of the Hustings Court, of Richmond, made an interesting ruling this week in the case of a man charged with selling cocaine. Justice Crutchfield has held that action against peddlers of cocaine must be brought on the complaint of the Board of Pharmacy, but Judge Witt ruled that any citizen may bring charges. This is a just and proper decision. Those who peddle cocaine should be punished to the limit of the law and any reputable citizen should be allowed to present charges against them.

AFTER MANY postponements of the ceremony the Sultan yesterday officially received Ambassador Leishmann, who presented his credentials as first ambassador of the United States to Turkey.

Washington, Oct. 6.

Irish home rule was discussed in the President's office this morning during a little chat that took place between the Executive and Hon. T. P. O'Connor, the famous self government advocate of the House of Commons. The President told Mr. O'Connor how much he admired him, how much he hoped for Ireland's success how many eminent Irishmen have done great things here and abroad, and, on the "come back" Mr. O'Connor told the President that he "loomed like the statue of Liberty in New York harbor" among the men of modern times. Mr. O'Connor told the President that an Irish home rule bill would be introduced in the House of Commons this winter and that it will be passed by that body by a majority of 150. If sufficient public sentement is shown, Mr. O'Conner expects the House of Lords will O. K. it as well.

It is officially denied at the White House that any orders have been issued or that any are contemplated, holding the Cuban expedition at Norfolk. The statement is made that the troops will proceed to the island as rapidly as transportation can be obtained. President Roosevelt had a final conference at noon today with Governor Magoon and General Bell who leave for Cuba this after noon.

Maj. Gen. Wade, commanding the Atlantic division, has forwarded to the War Department a report from Inspector General Mills who was sent to Fort Morgan, Ala., to investigate the extent of the disaster to that post from the recent cyclone which swept the Gulf States The report says that Inspector Mills arrived at the fort yesterday morning and found that ten men were on the sick report, three of them from injuries received during the storm. The destruction of the buildings, the inspectator states, has been very great. The civil engineer of the quartermaster's department, who has been at Eort Morgan for two days, is now on his way back to Washington He estimates the damage done by the storm to buildings, etc., of the quartermaster's department at about $100,000. Twenty-two buildings were wholly destroyed.

It is reported here that Senator Thomas C. Platt, of New York, will shortly tender his resignation as Senator to the Governor of New York. He has decided to take this course, it is said, on account of his failing health. For more than a year he has been unable to walk without assistance, and the recent disclosures of his unhappy domestic relations, and the consequent mental anguish, have increased his weakness and brought him to a serious physical condition which is alarming to his friends. Senator Platt is 75 years old and is now serving his second term in the Senate. He would still have nearly 3 years to serve.

The pay-roal of the army for the fiscal year ended June 30 last was $30,800 657.62. The report of the postmaster general contains a plea for a general increase of pay to both officers and soldiers.

Secretary Metcalf, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, today accepted the bid of the New York Ship Building Company, of Camden, N. J., to construct four first class, steel steam light ships at a total cost of $396,000. The vessels are to be used on the Atlantic coast.

Draws Line on Soap Diet.

Soft soap poked down his throat until every breath brought bubbles through his nose and mouth, Samuel Dickor, an Atlantic City High School graduate, found life too strenuous after a trial of one day and is back at his home at Atlantic City, nursing bruises by the dozen and a painfully inflamed mouth and throat as the result of a clash with "Soph" hazers.

Young Dickor went to Swarthmore early Saturday morning, having successfully passed his entrance examinations. He had scarcely alighted from the train when a crowd of sophomores swooped down upon him, relieved him of his baggage and began to put him through the first stunts of a first year man. Dicker, it is said, took the antics in good part until a young giant stuffed his mouth with the soap and then made him drink water. As he sputtered and blew bubbles the Sophs executed a war dance about him. Young Dicker had views of his own as to hazing and, it is said, the giant bully carried two black eyes back to his dormitory. Then Dickor picked up his grip and boarded the next train for home. He said yesterday he would enter another college.

More Lynchings.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 6 —A mob at 11:30 this morning met at the outskirts of the city a train upon which Sheriff Powers was bringing back two negroes to answer charges of attacking women, took the prisoner from the officer and his deputies and lynched both prisoners.

Eight persons were yesterday killed outright, several others are likely to die and at least two-score were injured by exploding gas in the Market street subway at a point between Sixth and Seventh streets, Philadelphia, an account of which was published in the Gazette of that day.

The Messagero of Rome publishes an interview with Father Ferrini, general of the Camillini Order, who denies reports that Father Virginio Carones, rector of the Church of the Santa Maria Maddalena, fled from Rome with a young woman. The general explained that Father Carones did not agree with his superiors in regard to church matters, which, together, with the probable suppression of the parish of which he was rector, must have induced him to abandon Rome suddenly.

The Capital Traction Company and the Washington Railway and Electric Company will have the right of way to the main entrance of the new union station in Washington. This important step was decided upon at a special meeting held Thursday afternoon by representatives of the Baltimore and Ohio and the Pennsylvania Railroad companies, the architects of the new station, and Commissioner Biddle, in charge of the engineer department of the District of Columbia, when the plans for the arrangement of streets and street car tracks leading to the new station plaza were agreed upon.

Believing that the "murder doctors," as they called the board of health physicians, were cutting the throats of their children in a public school in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn, 1,500 women, nearly all of them Italians, stormed the school building in a mad effort to reach the little ones yesterday. Before the riot had been quelled several policemen had been seriously injured by the infuriated women and one of the rioters had been arrested. Three other schools in the same district also were stormed by women who had wrought themselves into frenzy upon hearing of the so-called "murder doctors" In one case it was found impossible to quiet the rioters until the pupils were dismissed.

Wants to Marry President's Daughter.

A man who gave his name as Thaddeus Ziegler, of Frankfort, Ky., walked into Chief Millikin's office in Cincinnati yesterday afternoon and introduced himself He sat down quietly, and started in by apologizing for broaching the subject, but he was out of funds and had to get on to Washington as soon as possible. He asked if Chief Millikin could get him transportation there. Chief Millikin started to reply, but his caller proceeded:

"You see, I had a vision, and the Lord told me to go to Washington. He showed me that I was to marry Ethel Roosevelt. She is the President's daughter, and the Lord has willed that we marry."

Then Chief Millikin realized what sort of a case he had to deal with. He learned from Ziegler that he formally owned a grocery in Frankfort, but got sick. He said he came to Cincinnati from Louisville, but could not remember when. He had a valise with some money in it, but he could not remember where he left it. He was given a place to sleep in Central police station for the night, and the police will try to find his relatives and friends, and notify them to take charge of him.

Cotton Market Excited.

The cotton market had a very strong and excited advanee at the opening in New York yesterday with the spring months selling above 11 cents and the general list about 40 points, or $2 a bale over the closihg figure of the previous day on stop-loss covering and tremendous buying by the South, local and Liverpool bulls. Reports of further storms in the South and a prediction of a squeeze among dealers short of actual cotton for October delivery were factors in the advance. October in New York sold at 10.88, or 219 points above the low level Shorts appeared to be panic stricken in all markets and December contracts in New Orleans sold 77 points over the close of Thursday night. There were several reactions of 10 or 12 points during the middle session, but the market continued very active and excited, and the best prices were reached in the late trading. October sold at 10.94, December 10.98 and March 11.11, or 46a51 points net higher on predictions of frost in the southwest and news of a storm off the Florida coast. In the last few minutes there was heavy realizing and the market closed fairly steady at a net advance of 38a45 points. The sales were estimated at 750,000 bales.

Cuban Affairs.

It is now regarded as possible in army circles that troops may not be sent to Cuba, the peaceful condition of affairs on the island rendering them, in the opinion of some officials, superfluous.

In the absence of any orders to the contrary, however, preparations for the embarkation at Newport News are, of course, going on.

The big battleships now in Cuban waters will, it is expected, be recalled in a few days, cruisers being thought sufficeint for the work to be done.

Disarmament goes on, but bands of rebels at Pinar del Rio are holding on to their weapons through distrust of the Cuban government forces.

Prominent Cubans are greatly surprised over the disclosure that Palma suggested intervention so early and attribute it to the fact that he was panic-stricken.

While walking in a lot near her home, at Myrtle, near Suffold yesterday, Louise Lankford, aged 10 years, was grabbed by Mark Underwood, a negro, who attempted criminal assault. The remains of Judge Thomas Turner Fauntleroy, former member of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, member of the legislature and former Secretary of State, who died on Monday night at the home of his son, Thomas T. The committee investigating the Williamsburg Asylum met at Richmond yesterday, but it developed that it will not be able to digest the 6,000 page record and reach conclusions before the general hospital board meets next week. The impression is that the committee will reassemble in November to formulate the reports. There will be two. Great satisfaction is felt there over the peaceable outcome of the Foster-Ould controversy. Dr. Foster's statement that he intended no reflection on any lady at the institution nor on Mr. Ould was followed by a brief meeting between the two men who shook hands before parting. The majority report of the committee will sustain Dr. Foster and commend his administration, but will recommend a larger appropiation for the asylum.

Work of a Vandal.

As the result of the daring work of some unknown vandal Thursday night fully 100 plate-glass windows on Broad street Richmond, bear the defacing marks of a diamond glass cutter in the way of deep, penetrating lines and figures, entailing a loss to the owners of the property of probably $5,000. Figures of the most fantastic description mar the beauty of the windows. Lines, some of them very, deep forming curves and images, abound everywhere. Indelibly stamped on the most prominent places on the windows in many instances are words of an indecent character. The disfiguration can be wiped out only by the complete removal of all the windows and the purchase of new ones. The names of "Martha, and" P. T. Moore, Richmond," are also inscribed on several of the windows. It is possible that the names will serve police as clues to the perpetrators of the outrage.

Paxson Case Continued.

Messrs. Cabell and Miller, counsel for Mrs. Myrtle R. Gordon-Searles, appeared before Judge Copton in the Circuit Court of Henrico county yesterday and filed a motion for abatement of the $25,000 attachment levied against her Virginia property by Attorney John A. Lamb, representing Mrs. Bessie C. Paxson, of New York and Washington, who sues for the alleged alienation of the affections of her husband, Louis Paxson, by the respondent. They also replied to duplicate attachments served against each of them in the proceedings. The case was then continued, no date being set for the trial of the case when it comes up on its merits. Mrs. Paxson states in her declaration that she and her husband are still unreconciled and that she has been greatly injured and defamed.

Wagner Wins Race.

Vanderbilt Cup Course, L. I., Oct. 6.—The starting of the Vanderbilt cup race was delayed fifteen minutes owing to a dense fog.

W. K. Vanderbilt jr, donor of the cup, the referee of the race, drove his Fiat racer several miles down the Jericho pike from the start shortly before six o'clock and saw the fog had not lifted to make racing practical. He ordered a postponement until 6:15, the clouds were hanging low, but the drivers get a clear view to let their machines out.

To the boom of an aerial bomb announcing the start of the race Le Blon, the French driver, of the American Thomas flyer, got away the first car exactly on the second. The great crowd gave the driver and machinist a hearty send-off.

The track conditions were unfavorable, the heavy fog having made the going greasy. Le Blon's start showed the roads slippery and several other machines of the 17 starters which left at exact minute intervals, one minute being dropped for Foxhall Keene, who failed to start, as No. 11 showed a tendency not to take willingly to the road. All the machines wore heavy tire armament to prevent skidding.

The third running of the Vanderbilt auto cup race was watched by the greatest number of people that ever assembled in this country at a single sporting event. The largest concourse of automobiles yet gathered in the United States thronged Nassau county. This crowded the special trains which left Long Island City every minute from midnight before the multitude of enthusiasts who cannot afford motors reached the course.

Single beds in private dwellings and second rate hotels in the vicinity of the course brought prices that even the rapacious country hotelkeepers had never dreamed of assessing. The prominent hostelries in the aristocratic neighborhood had been booked to their limit months ago

The scene about the 29:77 miles of oiled highway were such as have become familiar to the cup race. Shelter tents were pitched on the roadsides and in fields, while motorists who bronght their autos to Nassau county last night slept under the hoods of the tonneau cushions without thought of discomfort.

The country hotels and bar-rooms were wide open all night, all excise regulations being suspended.

The race was very exciting throughout, although Wagner, who was the victor, was in the lead most of the time.

This is the third time the Vanderbilt cup race has been won by a French automobile and for the second time by a Darracq machine. Louis Wagner, a Frenchman, hitherto unknown in this country, repeated the trick that the great Hemery performed last year. He carried his machine ten times around the circuit of 29:77 miles with an average speed of 61:40 miles an hour, making but one circuit in over 30 minutes and averaging a decimal over 29 miles to the lap. No more masterly race was ever driven than was Wagner's today, but he shares the honors with Lancia, who, twice defeated in a Vanderbilt cup race, still carries a reputation which places him high among racing drivers.

Lancia finished a scant three minutes behind Wagner, after the Italian's 120 horse power Fiat had wrestled for 297 miles with the Frenchman's 110 horse power Darracq. Third in the race was Duray, with his 120 horse power Dietrich, a little over seven minutes in elapsed time behind Lancia. To Wagner is due the achievement of driving a race in which his elapsed time was always less than that of any of his competitors in a long grilling contest, the demands of which experts said was very distresing.

Killed by an Automobile.

New York, Oct. 6.—One man was killed and many injured in an automobile accident early today in the rush to the Vanderbuilt cup course. Joseph Stadler was run down in Long Island City by an auto car driven by Wm. Woods of Boston. His back was broken and he died instantly. George Wynder, who was crossing the street with Stadler, was also knocked down. He was internally injured. William Horn, the chauffeur, was arrested.

While crossing the street at 34th street and Second avenue, a big touring car knocked down and mortally injured Mary Cegan. The woman was confused by the swarm of automobiles The accident was unavoidable.

S. A Salzloroski was knocked down while trying to cross Hoffman Boulevard by a motor car. His leg was broken The 120 horse power Fiat driven by Weilschott in the Vanderbilt race went wrong in its steering gear at Manhassett and Weilschott's first round, turning completely over. Dr. Weilschott and his mechanic, Colombo, were hurled from the machine but fortunately escaped with only minor bruises. Aldo Weilschott, the Italian driver, of the big 120 horse power Fiat machine, met with the first serious accident of the race. His accident may cost the life of Carl Bruner, of Passaye, N. J., a boy spectator of the contest, who was run over and so seriously injured that his recovery is doubtful. The accident was caused by the steering gear of the automobile becoming deranged.

Westbury, Oct. 6—While Tracy was making his seventh lap his machine skidded and got beyond his control at the East Norwich turn. Twelve people were knocked down and Ralph Baldwin, of Norwalk, Conn., was mortally injured.

After Would-be Kidnappers.

New York, Oct. 6.—Armed men on foot and on horseback are watching Hempstead Plain, L. I., today, for the kidnappers who attacked May Ladenburg, twelve years old, daughter of Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg, and heiress to $10,000,000, but who were scared off after they had the little girl in their grasp. The child had accompanied her mother and a party to the Piping Rock horse show, at Locust Valley, where Miss May won a silver cup offered by Harry Payne Whitney to riders of ponies who were twelve years old or under. The girl instead of going home in an automobile with the party insisted on riding her pony. It was dark when she reached the Ladenburg estate, Oasis, on the Hempstead Plains. In a clump of thick woods edging the estate a buggy containing two men came rattling along the road. It was pulled directly across the roadway, compelling the girl to drive into a ditch on the side. The men jumped out, pulled the girl off the saddle and picked her up to throw her into the buggy. Her screams were heard by Andre Reinsaiug, her mother's gardener, in his lodge not far away. When the gardener ran to her assistance, the men jumped into the buggy and started off on a gallop in the direction of Westbury. When she revived and told her story 50 men went in search of her assailants.

Wholesale Frauds in Cuba.

Havana, Oct. 6 —Wholesale frauds on the part of officers connected with the former Cuban government are expected to be revealed by the American auditors who are examining the financial status of the late republic. Already one scandal has been unearthed and it is believed others will follow. Governmental departments, learning that an investigation that will bring to light such facts, may account for the tenacity with which many of the former Cuban officerholders clung to their positions and opposed any compromise with the insurgents which would lead to giving the liberals power in office and an opportunity to investigate the manner in which public affairs has been conducted

The scandal already brought to light is in the government commissary department at Cienfuegos Investigation of conditions there by the Americans has developed that there was a shortage amounting to several hundred thousand dollars.

Disarmament of the rebels is going on smoothly today, but the laying down of arms is little better than a farce. The American officers in charge of the work have been compelled to wink at the substitution of old and useless guns for their service rifles by insurgents. The percentage of even those old weapons surrendered, in comparison to the number of insurgents known to have been in arms, is small.

Hearst and Murphy.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 6.—William R. Hearst reached here today without having arrived at any definite decision as to the overtures for peace made to him by Charles F. Murphy through the chairman of the State democratic committee. Despite denials by Conners and Murphy's statement that he had sent no word to Hearst, it can be positively asserted that the Tammany chieftain has asked for quarters in New York. He is willing to make great sacrifices to save his organization, and will concede a majority of all places on the local tickets, providing that he is assured no third ticket will be placed in the field there. His attitude has halted Hearst's plan for an open rupture. The candidate for Governor planned to issue a statement last night in which he would denounce all bosses, both big and little, but Murphy's message halted it. It may come when the candidate reaches New York Sunday night, and then again the surrender of Murphy may be so complete that it will never be made.

A Suggestive Incident.

Mineola, L. I., Oct. 6.—An incident occurred here last night which caused a good deal of comment. Howard Gould arrived at the hotel and went in to dinner. His wife and another person were in the dining room, and each appeared totally unmindful of the other's presence. It is said that the pair have not been living together for some time, owing to a disagreement about the superintendent of the magnificent Castle Gould which Mr. Gould is building on Long Island. Mrs. Gould became annoyed because the superintendent would not obey her, and asked his discharge. Mr. Gould, having the utmost confidence in the man's judgment, refused to dismiss him, and this led to the present separation. Mr. Gould has rooms at the Waldorf-Astoria. Mrs. Gould has a suite at the St. Regis.

Russian Affairs.

St Petersbug, Oct. 6. General Grodekof has been relieved from his post as commander-in-cheif of the Russian forces in the far East and has been succeeded by General Selwanoff Agitators of either sex are to be shot onsight in the future. Orders to this effect have been issued by the Ministers of War.

American capitalists are reported to be interested in the exploitation of mining interests in the south part of Russia. Just where the claim which they wish to develop is located is not definitely known.

Three Firemen Injured.

Warren, Pa., Oct. 6 —Three firemen were injured in a fire which destroyed the large four story warehouse of the Pickett Hardward Company today. They are W. C. Grindley, Burton George, and Herman Hammond. The men were working on a ladder which was blown down by the force of an explosion. The loss on the buildings and contents is estimated at $100,000. The fire was caused by lightning which was carried into the warehouse by electric light wires.

The Platt Martial Troubles.

New York, Oct. 6.—Senator Platt has not met his wife since the publication of their marital troubles. He will not contest any suit for divorce, but it is understood that he is satisfied to pay her handsome alimony. Mrs. Platt resolutely declined to talk of her troubles, but admitted that she had been in consultation with lawyers.

King Executes Seven Wives.

Thanh Thai, King of Annam, according to stories reaching Paris from Indo-China, has again been guilty of such atrocities that the French government may be compelled to adopt rigorous disciplinary measures, as it did several years ago, when, on account of the scandal caused by the barbarous torture of the king's personal attendants, the French resident, at the head of the gendarmery, entered the palace to save the lives of the attendants and restore order. The mails now report that in August the king was seized with a homicidal mania, ordered seven of his wives to be executed, and looked on with delight while they were slowly tortured to death. A few days later the king shot down a prince, who was seventy years old, a member of the council of the royal family, highly esteemed, and the last surviving son of King Minh Mang. When the French resident called to remonstrate with Thanh Thai the latter declined to permit him to enter the palace. The king wanted to go to Paris, as the king of Cambodia did, but the French press declares that he shall never be allowed to visit France.

Monday will be the last day for registration.

Drops Dead Beside the Ticker.

Isadore Nelson, more than 70 years old, and a character on Wall street, New York, for nearly half a century, dropped dead beside the ticker that clicked off the news that he had lost his speculation in Union Pacific by two points. The old man bought three or four shares of stock at a time, usually on a two-point margin, and was supposed to make a modest living by his minor speculation. Yesterday Mr. Nelson sold a few shares of Union Pacific short on a 2 per cent. margin. He went to the saloon at 38 New street, and with several other men stood by the ticker. There was a fractional rise in the stock. As the quarters and eighths began to be added to the "U. P." initials on the tape Mr. Nelson became excited. When at last 186 was reached and his little investment was swept away the old man gasped and fell in a heap to the floor. When they picked him up he was dead. There was nothing on his person to indicate his address. Nobody knew anything about him or his family beyond the fact that he was a constant speculator.

Her Dream Prophetic.

When Mrs Hopper, the housekeeper at 97 Fourth avenue, New York, entered the room of Joseph Grover, on the top floor, yesterday, she saw Grover sitting tipped back in a chair, one foot on a small table and a pencil in his right hand. His hand rested upon a sheet of paper, upon which he had written, "My darling wife." The man was dead. On the table was a quart bottle nearly full of carbolic acid. He had swallowed a quantity of the poison. While Mrs. Hopper was rushing out to summon a policeman she met Mrs. Grover. "Has anything happened to Joe?" inquired Mrs. Grover, I dreamed last night that he was dead." Mrs. Grover fainted when Mrs. Hopper told her what had happened.

Wedding in Stafford.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mary Powers, in Stafford county, when her daughter, Mrs. Mattie Powers Price, became the bride of Mr. Wm. W. Payne, of Alexandria. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Burwell, of the Episcopal Church, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The parlors were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The bride entered leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. R. W. Powers, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Richard Payne, of Richmond. The bride, who is one of Stafford's most beautiful women, was becomingly attired in a superbly built princess gown and carried a white prayer book. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was enjoyed by the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Payne left on a northbound train for an extended bridal trip.—[Fredericksburg Star.

Formal Charges to be Made.

Before a police trial board investigation of the conduct of Capt. Matthews and the police of the Fourth precinct, of Washington, when Engineer Hugh Murphy was scalded to death beneath his overturned engine is ordered, it will be necessary for some one to make formal charges to Maj. Sylvester. The charges will be filed by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Mr. Charles Bendheim, of this city, attorney for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said, yesterday, that he had read carefully Maj. Sylvester's report upon the Murphy incident, and considered it based in the main upon the testimony of witnesses who had never been cross examined.

Police Court.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Pearl Dove, arrested by Officer Smith charged with using abusive language toward Kate Williams, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear.

Two white men, arrested by Officers Smith and Garvey charged with being drunk in the street, were dismissed with an admonition.

Jake Brooks, colored, arrested by Lieutenant Smith on suspicion of robbery, was held.

Bottlers' Convention.

Mr. Frank M. Findley, accompanied by Messrs. Wm. McGuire, of the Arlington Brewing Co.; Charles Jacobsen, of the Arlington Bottling Co.; and P. F. Carr, of the Washington Brewing Co., delegates to the Bottlers' Convention which meets in Atlanta, Ga., will leave in a special train tomorrow. A number of friends from this city will also take the trip and incidentally visit the Georgia State Fair, which opens next week.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Com. vs. Howard Banks, colored, indicted for the murder of Thomas Elzey, also colored; case fixed for trial on Friday next, the 12th instant.

Com. vs. Waverly Lucas, colored, indicted for felonious cutting; jury and verdict of guilty of unlawful but not malicious cutting and penalty fixed at 6 months in jail and a fine of $5.

The New Electric Plant.

Mr. J. D. Knight has been awarded by the Alexandria Electric Company the contract for the work of metamosphosing the old buildings of the Osage Manufacturing Company at the foot of Wolfe streets, where the new electric plant will be situated. The work will be commenced next Monday.

Notices to Delinquents.

City Treasurer Robinson has caused notices to be posted throughout the city notifying property-owners who have failed to pay certain State taxes that the real estate upon which the same is due will, according to law, be offered for sale at public auction on the 12th proximo.

A fine Shetland pony belonging to Mr. C. M. Griffin was killed yesterday by its owner. The animal had been suffering from lockjaw.

The New Engine.

As has been stated in the Gazette, Mr. Wm. T. Belt, Chief Engineer of the Washington Fire Department, has submitted his report on the new engine recently received in this city. The apparatus was tested this week at the foot of Wolfe street, and proved satisfactory in every particular. Chief Belt, after giving the details concerning the test and the official figures in connection therewith, closes his report as follows:

"On October 3rd, 1906, the day following the above test, an examination was made of the boiler, engine, and pumps. A hydrostatic pressure of 50 lbs. to the square inch was put on the boiler, which showed no indiction of leaks or of burning. The contract called for the pumps to give a displacement of not less than 500 gallons of water per minute; but in its displacement test (the fourth test) the engine while making 402 revolutions per minute, adding plunger and rod corrections and three per cent reduction for slip, displaced 566.82 gallsions of water per minute. In conclusion I have to state that this engine complied in every respect with the specifications and that all the extra equipments were furnished in proper condition. In fact the engine exceeded the requirements in every particular. I have to recommend therefore, that this engine be accepted, and in making this recommendation I want to heartily congratulate the city of Alexandria on receiving so good a piece of fire apparatus and so valuable an addition to its firefighting strength."

The new engine is now in commission, and the city is equipped with three modern steam fire engines.

Opera House.

The largest crowd of the season greeted the Corinne Runkel Stock Company at the Opera House last night to witness the presentation of "The Ironmaster," a melodrama of intense interest in four acts. The show throughout was enjoyable and far above the average production. The title role of Jack Walton was played by C. W. Guthrie in his usually fine manner, while Miss Grace Fries as Hester Thornberry was an excellent heroine. Ted Briton as Humpty Logan was decidedly clever. The specialties were again heartly applauded, especially the singing of Ray Myers. The Runkel Company has become very popular with the people of Alexandria and has made many friends while here, and the largest crowds ever seen in the Opera House are expected tonight and all next week. Tonight the company will produce "Queen's Evidence," a play calculated to please every one. New specialties will be introduced. Monday night will be ladies' night again, and the bargain tickets at 15 cents if reserved before 7 o'clock.

The Runkel Company gave a matinee this afternoon to a crowded house, the play presented being "Trix a Child of the Ozarkies," which pleased those present. A beautiful gold locket was given away to the child holding the correct number.

The Tied-up Steamers

Another step was taken yesterday in the efforts of business men in Baltimore to settle the steamboat strike, when Messrs. Charles J. Fox and J. G. Schonfarber, chief and deputy, respectively, of the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information, decided to request both the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic and the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railways and the masters and mates of the companies to settle their disagreement by arbitration.

Manager Thompson refuses to recognize the union but will treat with his employees.

The movement of steamers was better yesterday than Thursday. Three left—the Fred Avon for Claiborne; the Maryland for the Nanticoke river, and the Avalon for the Choptank river landings.

In the morning the steamer Chesapeake, which had gone out in command of Captain Thomas, arrived from a trip which relieved, to some, extent, the congestion on the Eastern Shore. Captain Thomas took the Avalon out in the evening.

U. D. C.

At the meeting of Mary Custis Lee Chapter, on Tuesday last, much business of importance, and of especial interest to this Chapter, was transacted. Reports of various committees were received, that of the ladies appointed to interview the young men of the town, being very gratifying. It is hoped that an organization will be soon formed on a permanent basis, and that the Sons of Veterans of Alexandria may stand ready and willing to assist in all matters of interest to Virginia. Mrs. Thomas Turner, Mrs. James E. Alexander, Mrs. E. H. O'Brien, Mrs. D. J. Howell, and Miss Edna Alexander were elected delegates to the State convention, which meets in Wytheville next Wednesday. Mrs. Alexander will represent the Chapter at the U. D. C. Convention, Gulfport, Miss., in November. In the absence of Mrs. Thomas Turner, president, Mrs. Dabney Herndon, vice-president, conducted the meeting in a very satisfactory and businesslike manner.

Arrested on Suspicion.

Lieutenant Smith, at the instance of Mr. S. G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, yesterday arrested a colored man named Jake Brooks, on suspicion of being connected with recent robberies in this city. It has developed that the pistol with which Howard Banks shot and killed Thomas Elzey Thursday night at one time belonged to Brooks. The latter sold it to Joe Harris from whom Banks obtained it. Brooks will not state how he came in possession of the weapon, and it is suggested that he may know something in connection with certain robberies in this city during the past few months in which pistols formed part of the plunder.

Special Display for Millinery for Girls

Hats for Misses and Children from an interesting part of our millinery display now in progress. A number of these are importations from the leading French Milliners, and are like those of our own make, representations of the latest styles in shapes and materials. They are trimmed with feathers, flowers, quills, and wings almost quite as richly as are those superb creations for women. Long and elegant ostrich plumes and fluffy tips adorn many of the more elaborate hats for misses. However, the tasteful artists will give to each one a distinguishing touch that marks it for the youthful wearer.

There are many varieties of material for making children's hats, and numberless untrimmed hats, all of which can be made more or less expensive.

"Old Bullion's" Arrogance.

"Thomas H. Benton was a most remarkable man," said the late Colonel Switzler, "in some respects the most remarkable I have ever known, but he could not begin a career at this time. The people would not tolerate him. He would impress even a stranger by his appearance. He walked as if he owned the earth. With head raised at an angle of 45 degrees and hands behind his back he would stalk with measured tread down the street, looking neither to the right nor to the left, recognizing no one. If he had an appointment to speak at 2 o'clock, promptly at 2 o'clock he would arrive. He would come in his carriage unattended. He would permit no one to introduce him, but, passing through the crowd, he would make his way to the rostrum and begin, 'Citizens.' Never did he say 'Fellow citizens.' Those before him were no fellows of his. And when he had concluded he would make his way back to the hotel without personally addressing a soul in the audience. No one dared interrupt him in his speech. He refused to recognize the right of any constituent to ask him how he stood on any subject."—Columbia Herald.

How Much Air We Have.

One hundred and thirty-one miles is the height of the atmosphere as measured by Professor T. J. J. See, who determines the thickness of the air envelope by noting the difference between the time of sunset and the complete disappearance of blue from the sky. The moment at which the blue changes into black can be observed quite easily with approximate certainty by the naked eye when the air is clear, and by trigonometry may be ascertained the distance below the horizon of the sun at the moment of change. By this means may be calculated the height of the smallest illuminated particles of oxygen and nitrogen which give to the sky its blueness of tint by the reflection of the smallest wave lengths of the sun's light. The instant of change from blue to black is possibly a little difficult of exact observation, but the method is not more doubtful than that based on the observation of shooting stars. The shooting star method gives a result not greatly differing from the vanishing blue method. The former gives the height of the atmosphere at 109 miles.

A French Verdict.

All juries have a way of tempering justice with mercy and strict logic with good or bad sense. French juries excel in these practices. A Mme. Canaby of Bordeaux was accused of having forged two prescriptions and of having thereby obtained large quantities of poison, some of which she administered to her husband, who nearly died and was only saved by his doctor, who suspected something wrong and took him away. The evidence was overwhelming, for the prisoner completely failed to give any plausible explanation as to why she wanted the poison—enough, as the chemist said, to kill two regiments. Nevertheless the jury found Mme. Canaby guilty of forging the prescriptions, but not guilty of attempting to poison her husband. Perhaps the jury thought the husband unpoisoned was punishment enough in himself for one crime.

Inebriety and the Eating of Fruit.

There is but one sure cure for the drinking disease or habit, and that is the simplest of all. The cure consists in eating fruits. That will cure the worst case of inebriety that ever afflicted a person. It will entirely destroy the taste for intoxicants and will make the drunkard return to the thoughts and tastes of his childhood. No person ever saw a man or woman who liked fruit and who had an appetite for drink. No person ever saw a man or woman with an appetite for drink who liked fruit. The two tastes are at deadly enmity with each other, and there is no room for both of them in the same human constitution. One will surely destroy the other.—What to Eat.

Old Saying With New Meaning.

The saying "Cast not a clout till May be out" has been understood to be a caution against laying aside winter clothing until the month of May has ended. A correspondent of London Notes and Queries says that an old gardener he knows gives a different turn to the proverb, affirming that after the may has come into bloom there is never any further danger of frost, and the saying is really a caution against throwing aside extra garments not until the month has come to an end, but until the may be out in blossom.

A Horrible Custom.

Writing from Abyssinia, a correspondent says: "Quaint customs prevail in these parts. When a father is getting on in years the son bids him climb into a tree and jump down from the branches. If the old man staggers on landing the son spears him on the spot; his usefulness is over."

Correct.

The New Waitress—Shall I say "Dinner is served" or "Dinner is ready," ma'am? Mistress—If that cook doesn't do any better, just say "Dinner is spoiled."—Harper's Bazar.

Nerve.

"You don't even dress me decently," she cried. "I'm going home to papa."

"All right," replied Doolits. "You might say to him also that I need a new suit myself."

Tart.

Stella—He told me I looked sweet enough to eat.

Bella—He doubtless meant you were well preserved.—New York Sun.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemmorhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists 50c and $1.00.
